

LEGAL XML

Legal XML Organizing Committee

March 31, 2000
American Bar Association Techshow 2000

LEGAL

- Welcome
- Introductions
- Introduction to Potential Organization Models
- Group Discussion
- Determine Steps Forward
- Close

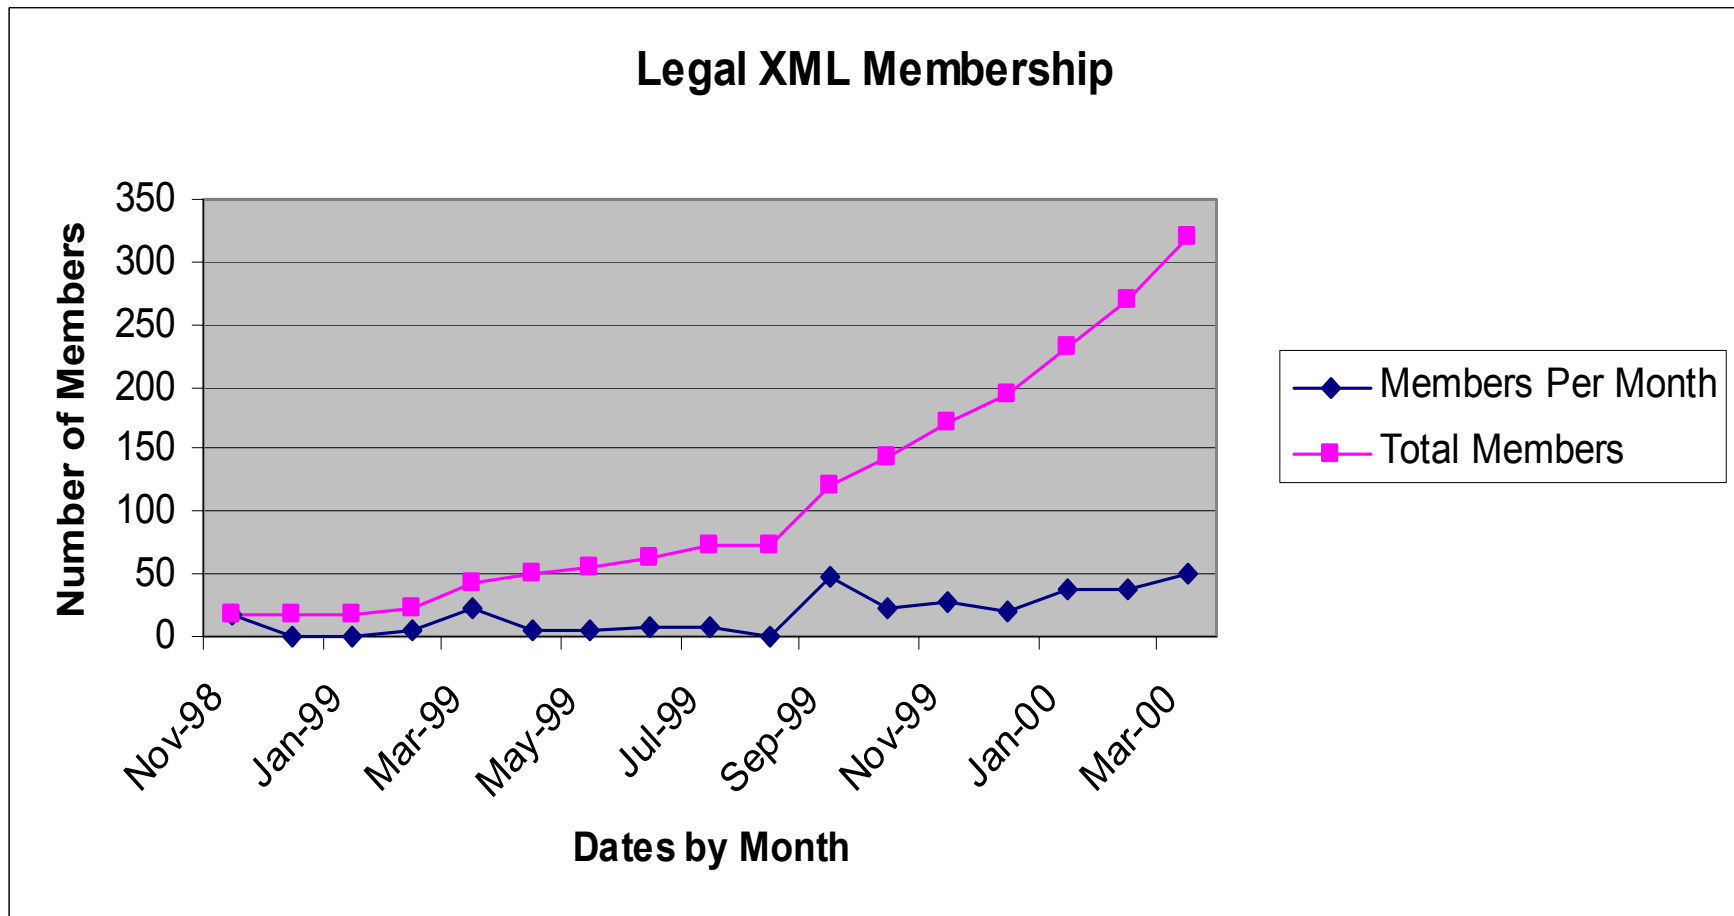

LEGAL

Meeting Objectives

- Determine or gain community consensus or ways to achieve it
- Determine a clear vision of a path forward (set deadlines)
- Determine funding opportunities
- Determine a favored organizational model
- Discuss administration and management
- Discuss and recognize the need for improved policy and procedure, even if the group does not determine policy and procedure at the meeting. Determine steps forward in formulating better policy and procedure.

LEGAL XML

Membership Chart

LEGAL

Questions to Be Answered

- What standards?
- What technologies?
- Developed for what economic or social purposes?
- Developed for what legal applications?
- Developed by whom?
- What organization(s)?
- Who Governs?
- Who Funds?
- Who Owns?
- Who Administers and Manages?
- Who owns the intellectual property and under what policy?
- How do you market the effort?

LEGAL XML

Issues

- Organizing Committee and Its Purpose
- Legal XML Mission
- Legal XML Purpose and Value Propositions
- Scope
- Organization
- Administration and Management
- Funding and Ownership
- Governance
- Intellectual Property Policy
- Marketing